Mission Ridge Ranked In Top-Selling Master-Planned Communities of 2021

El Paso, TX (January 24, 2022) – Mission Ridge, a Hunt Communities’ master-planned community in El Paso, ranked high on two national lists for top-selling master-planned communities.

In the RCLCO Top-Selling Master-Planned Communities of 2021 list Mission Ridge is ranked #10. Meanwhile, the John Burns Top Master-Planned Communities list ranks Mission Ridge #11 top-selling for 2021. Despite supply chain issues, Home sales in the nation’s 50 top-selling master-planned communities (MPCs) grew by a modest 5% compared to 2020, with a 14% decrease in sales during the second half of the year compared to the first. Mission Ridge reported 821 new home sales in 2021.

“We are pleased to be included on these prestigious lists,” said Justin Chapman, President of Hunt Communities. “Mission Ridge has consistently been a high-performing community due, in part, to the diligent planning and design of the community and each neighborhood within it. Its location and proximity to amenities and services, good schools, and commercial growth make it a preferred choice for homeowners.”
